

WHO QualityRights 2024 training webinars

on eliminating coercive practices in mental health

Contacts:

Michelle Funk & Natalie Drew Bold

drewn@who.int

Policy Law & Human Rights Unit

Dept of Mental Health and Substance Use, WHO

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!!

22 March (15.00 to 16.30 CET)

The road towards zero coercion mental health services - real world examples

26 April (12.30 to 14.00 CEST)

Crisis De-escalation: Practice & Tools

Registration:

<https://who.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJcsfuChrjgsGNCv7PsGeLL4rNrYtjAoW-2n>

23 May (15.30 to 17.00 CEST)

Recovery planning: Practice & Tools

19 June (15.00 to 16.30 CEST)

Supported decision making (English/Spanish simultaneous interpretation available)

Upcoming webinars later in 2024:

- Advance planning
- Comfort/sensory rooms
- Response teams
- National coercion notification & response systems

WHY PARTICIPATE?

- Learn from lead experts working towards eliminating coercion
- Benefit from expertise of persons with lived experiences
- Participate in dynamic, interactive discussion & training
- Contribute to shaping the global conversation on these critical issues

Do you know?

“How to eliminate coercion in services?”

“How to safeguard people's rights, even in crises?”

“How to respect people’s will & preferences?”

“What actions are needed for effective supported decision-making & advance planning?”